

Assistant President of Liberation

Assistant President of Liberation- Purpose of this post

- Are you passionate about equality for all and celebrating the diversity of others?
- Leading on liberation/representation campaigns for LGBTQ+, women, black students, students with disabilities, mature students, part time students etc.
- Assistant President of Liberation has the overall responsibility of ensuring that all students are treated equally, fairly and respected by each other and the college.
- Encouraging community cohesion and understanding of one another is key to the focus of this role.

Main duties and responsibilities

- Represent the views of liberation and representational Leaders to the Union and the College.
- Support liberation and representational leaders with their role
- Create new initiatives for ways in which to engage students in discussing and debating topics relating to Equality and Diversity to tackle prejudice and promote understanding.
- Spearhead campaigns, organise events and run activities to advance the liberation movement.
- Work with, and be a leader for the Liberation Network Chairs, regularly checking in and supporting them with initiatives and running of the Networks.
- Carry out duties that have been delegated to you by the Students' Union.

General duties and responsibilities

- Volunteering 4 hours per week in your job role.

Assistant President of Liberation

- Act reasonably always in the best interests of the Union.
- To present your work and feedback at Union Parliament and SU Team Meetings.
- Talk to students about services, events and activities via Out and About.
- To attend conferences and training events as and when required
- To attend SU activities dressed in promotional uniform (provided by the SU).
- To demonstrate good time management and use of own initiative.
- If over 18 years old to act as a Trustee of the Students' Union.
- Work alongside NUS on identified national campaigns.
- Carry out duties as laid down by the Leadership Team and Union Parliament.

Key working relationships

As an Assistant President, you will liaise with a range of colleagues within the Students' Union, college staff and students including college management, governors, local members of parliament, National Union of Students, local and national Students' Unions and local organisations.

Key meeting attendance

As an Assistant President, you will be required to attend Leadership team meetings and training every week and to attend Union Parliament once per term.

Assistant President of Liberation

Benefits of the post

- Discounted tickets for Students' Union trips and activities.
- Uniform.
- Full training provided by the Students' Union and National Union of Students - No experience is needed.
- Amazing for personal development – add to CV/Personal Statement.
- Meet new people and make new friends, Influence the direction and strategy of the Students' Union.
- Develop time management skills.
- Get involved in planning and organising events.
- Contribute to representing the student body and contributing to the student experience.
- Develop a wide range of communication skills.
- Make a difference.
- New opportunities and challenges.
- Enhance your employability.
- Prove your commitment and passion.
- Develop skills that equip you for life and work.
- Certificate for participation and reference on request.